

Flint Hills Resources Community Action Council

Speakers Bio

Name	Gayle Gottlich
Title	Consultant
Profession	Professional Staff Development - Healthcare
Company (if applicable)	Pathfinder Consulting
Preferred email	pathfinderggc@earthlink.net
Preferred contact number	361-563-1452

List any degrees you hold and the college or university from which you graduated:

Degree	University
BA	UT Austin

List any certifications, affiliations, honors or awards:

FHRCAC Steering Committee, Early Bird Reader Co-Chair, Youth Coordinator All Saints' Episcopal Church, Board member - Family Counseling Service, Youth in Action Committee Chair - Diocese of West Texas, Volunteer of the Year - Red Cross Coastal Bend Chapter, Choice Living Program - contributor

Experience:

25+ year experience in business management, emphasis in private medical practices, staff development, communications, strategic planning and development, vision and values development

Areas of expertise:

Communications, using strengths and values based management techniques, developing personal vision, career coaching

What do you feel are the most important qualities/characteristics in today's workplace?

Mediocrity is the enemy of excellence, we need to lead with intelligence, intention and integrity... and of course a personal sense of self. The ability to self observe is key in personal development.

More about me:

I am passionate about creative ways to overcome communication barriers, even if the barrier is within oneself. I am a very practical person that comes from a spiritual viewpoint. I enjoy youth, like to have fun with this and believe that talks of this sort should involve them actively so they can experience for themselves the concepts that are being taught.

Flint Hills Resources Community Action Council